

women as a part of that great human family to which they themselves belong.

"I do not regret the lesson I learned as a check girl. I consider it built more solidly the foundation of my character."

(To Be Continued.)

THE RESULT

Meeks—My wife prefers tea for breakfast, while I prefer coffee.

Bleeks—Then I suppose it is necessary to have both, eh?

Meeks—Oh, no; we compromise.

Bleek—In what way?

eMeeks—We have tea.

WOMEN LEAD IN CULINARY STRIKE ON 155 FRISCO RESTAURANTS AND CAFETERIAS

Feminine employees predominate in the strike of 1,000 culinary workers in San Francisco. Women patrol the sidewalks in front of "unfair houses." They have succeeded in practically stopping the trade of 155 restaurants and cafeterias. Two fair pickets are shown in the picture above, patrolling their "beat" in front of a big downtown eating establishment. The strike was called in a campaign to obtain a shorter workday and better conditions for employees.
